

Hello dear CityLAB Community,

There's no stopping us now: our CityLAB Sommerkonferenz 2024 starts in just two days' time! Are we excited? You bet! And are we ready? As you'll see if you take a look at our program: absolutely! We hope you are too and we are looking forward to seeing you the day after tomorrow at Haus Ungarn – bursting with energy and drive! Until then, we still have one or two little things to prepare – after all, it's not every day you get to celebrate a fifth anniversary, and we consider ourselves very fortunate to be able to do so with so many wonderful guests. The stage is set – just two more days to go!

CityLAB Sommerkonferenz 2024

Everything you need to know

There are two types of event participant: some draw up a personal timetable days in advance complete with personal highlights and carefully scheduled lunch and coffee breaks; these people always know exactly where they want to be and when. Then there are others who prefer to drift around, see what happens and simply let the day unfold. This blog post contains some insights into the program and daily schedule for both these participant types – including a few spoilers for the first group, but not too many so as not to scare off the second. The best way to find out how the fifth CityLAB Sommerkonferenz will turn out – organized with the kind support of our media partner eGovernment – is to be there yourself. If you want to have your say in the truest sense of the word, you'd better sign up now or forever hold your peace!

Kiezlabor

“I've been (almost) everywhere, man!”: the Kiezlabor tours Berlin

The song I've Been Everywhere by Johnny Cash conveys the sense of being constantly on the road as experienced by a lot of touring musicians – a feeling (or something rather like it) that our Kiezlabor team is definitely sharing right now! We've already been to two sites in Gropiusstadt and Lichtenberg – stops that were packed full with workshops, participatory formats and fascinating events involving the local community. Read two intriguing recap posts to find out what we learned and whether we swapped our laptops for guitars!

P.S.: The show must go on! See under “Events” in this newsletter to find out where next for our neighborhood lab project Kiezlabor.

LinkedIn

Congratulations on your new profile

At CityLAB we often hear people say things like “It was great to meet you today. We should stay in touch” or “Thank you for that informative discussion” – after all, good networking is part and parcel of our LAB DNA! True to our motto “we're ready to network”, it was only a matter of time before the LAB came across LinkedIn: there's lots to explore in our new profile – whether about the latest Kiezlabor tour, which events you can meet us at, or sneak peeks at projects we're currently working on. So there's really only one thing left to say: “I'd love to add you to my network.”

Sommerkonferenz 2024

Special edition of Kiezlabor: Sommerkonferenz here we come!

All day, Haus Ungarn

One venue alone is simply not enough for all those numerous ideas spilling out of the CityLAB team. So the Kiezlabor will be on site on the big day, too – because when the Kiezlabor meets the summer conference, only good things can happen! Our shipping container will be located directly opposite Haus Ungarn next to Marienkirche where it will be offering a program of its own for visitors to get involved in: in an interactive exhibition, you can find out more about the needs and challenges of the Berlin neighborhoods which the Kiezlabor has had the opportunity to visit. In addition, the Friedrichshain-Kreuzberg citizen center vocational training department will be on site and offering selected services – without the need for an appointment. Everything is possible at Kiezlabor!

Looking ahead

And now it's show time! If you can't make it to the summer conference in person, you're naturally welcome to follow us on all our channels – whether in the new LinkedIn feed, on YouTube afterwards or of course on site: we very much look forward to engaging in dialog with you – it's always an enriching and fulfilling experience!
